

The Chosen

Season 3, Episode 5

Clean, Part 2

Faith in Jesus confronts fear and despair, revealing His authority over life and death.

This episode continues the theme of healing and restoration as Jesus responds to the faith of those who come to Him in desperation. The story of the synagogue leader, Jairus, unfolds as he seeks Jesus' help for his dying daughter, even while others wrestle with disbelief. Hope and fear meet at the intersection of Jesus' power and compassion.

Featured Characters

Jesus, Jairus and his family, The bleeding woman, Simon Peter, Eden, Matthew, The disciples

Discussion Questions

- Where in your life are you being invited to replace fear with trust in Jesus?
- How do you respond when God's timing seems delayed or uncertain?
- What does this episode teach you about bringing your deepest needs and griefs to Christ?
- In what ways might you encourage others to hold on to hope in the midst of despair?

Scriptures and Texts

- Mark 5:35–43 – Jesus raises Jairus' daughter.
- Luke 8:49–56 – Jesus tells Jairus not to fear but to believe.
- Isaiah 41:10 – Fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God.

What Comes Next

Season 3, Episode 6

“Intensity in Tent City”

As Jesus' ministry continues, both opposition and devotion increase, and the disciples are drawn deeper into the cost of following Him.